

April 3, 1973

SPEAKER: Senator Rasmussen what shall we do with the bill?

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: I move that 378A be moved on to E&R.

SPEAKER: Any discussion? It has been moved that we advance LB 378A, those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no.

CLERK: Speaker Proud voting aye.

SPEAKER: Senator Whitney voting aye.

CLERK: Senator Whitney voting aye. 26 ayes, no nays Mr. President and the remainder not voting.

SPEAKER: The bill is advanced.

CLERK: Title Read LB 110A. There are amendment offered by Senator Fred Carstens to add the emergency clause.

SPEAKER: Is Senator Carstens here, Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President I have a point of order, a point of clarification or something on the previous bill 378A, didn't we adopt just the amendments to the amendment, we never did adopt the committee amendment I don't believe.

CLERK: There were no committee amendments.

SENATOR BARNETT: I thought they showed some on my book.

CLERK: They shouldn't, the thing was never referred --

SENATOR BARNETT: 378A? I'm wondering that might be the 378, but there was amendments on mine and I was thought it was in 378A, if not I would stand corrected.

SPEAKER: Is that right Mr. Clerk, there were no amendments on 378A. These amendments Mr. Clerk on 110A are by Senator Carstens.

CLERK: Yes, Fred Carstens.

SPEAKER: Is there anybody here who can take up those amendments it's the emergency clause plus what else Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I move these be adopted.

SPEAKER: Alright, Senator Carpenter do you care to explain the second one?

SENATOR CARPENTER: No, I can't. I'm sure it is one of those nominal things that's probably in proper order.

SPEAKER: Any further discussion on these amendments? Senator Carstens just walked in here, Senator Carstens we are 110A, Senator Carpenter has just finished not explaining the amendments. One is the emergency clause and the other one is what Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: Would you explain that Senator Carstens?

SENATOR CARSTENS: Yes, this 110 is the constitutional amendment implementation to appoint new Judicial Nominating Commissions which 110 has the emergency clause, now that will go into effect it's just about up for final reading, now it requires some cash
